

PILSEN : LABOR HISTORY WALKING TOUR WITH CHICAGO HISTORIAN PAUL DURICA

FRIDAY, MAY 10, 7pm -8:30pm FREE

Departing from URI-EICHEN Gallery 2101 S Halsted Chicago

PRESENTED BY URI-EICHEN GALLERY- part of the 8, 8 and 8 series of art shows and events about work

The Turner Hall massacre at Roosevelt

And then looking north down Halsted toward Hull-House and talking about the 1915 Hunger March

The Battle of the Viaduct at 16th

Maxwell Street

18th Street and the history of Czech and later Mexican activism in Pilsen

Looking South down Halsted toward Archer and introducing the 1877 strike

North on Halsted with stops to Discuss the founding of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers

